

Education Volunteer

World Hunger Relief Mission Statement

World Hunger Relief, Inc. is a Christian organization committed to the alleviation of hunger around the world. Our activities include a 1-year agriculture missions internship, local education and outreach, and direct international assistance. Our 40-acre Texas facility is operated as a working farm, generating produce for consumption and sale, and provides a real-world setting for training activities.

Job Description

The Education Volunteer is responsible for conducting education programs at WHRI. The Education Volunteer will agree to be available to conduct tours or LOTOS programs at least once a month, and will attend training at least one time per year. Tours and LOTOS activities are scheduled on an ongoing basis and volunteers will be made aware of them through e-mail.

Specific Duties Include:

- Conducting Farm tours
- Or helping with specific task in presenting our Living On The Other Side simulation

Optional Duties Include:

- Serve on Domestic Programs Committee

Qualifications Of The Ideal Candidate

- A committed Christian with a desire to help the poor
- practical experience in education
- Interest in agricultural practices appropriate to the developing world
- A basic understanding of the WHRI farm or a willingness to learn
- Experience supervising groups
- Good verbal communication,
- A team player

To Apply: Send cover letter and resume to:

World Hunger Relief, Inc.
Attn: Matt Hess
P.O. Box 639
Elm Mott, TX 76640

Or email: matt@worldhungerrelief.org